NOVEMBER 2026

INSTITUT BIBLIQUE DE BRUXELLES

1 Thank God for the churches that support the Institute through prayer, financial contributions, and by supervising church placements for the students. - The pastoral ministries of Aimé, Alexandre K., Benjamin, Boris, Damiano, and Gaston.

2 Pray for the first of the IBB's five guiding principles: faithfulness to God's word.
- Adrian and his music and composition ministry, and Aurélien, a military chaplain in France.

3 Pray for the lectures on the Gospel of Mark and Ecclesiology.
- Alexandre M. and Léon and their ministry with the GBU (University Bible Groups).

4 Pray for the lectures on Introduction to the Old and New Testaments and the Pentateuch.
- Anthony and Audrey, first-year students.

5 Pray for the biblical language classes, particularly for perseverance and consistent study for those taking Beginner Hebrew.
- Benjamin and Eline, fourth-year students on placement in Montpellier.

6 Pray for the lecture on the Gospel of Luke, and for discipline and joy in personal study.
- Bryan, a second-year student.

7 Pray for the Saturday-stream lecture series on Biblical Counselling and the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit in Lille.
- Camille, a first-year student.

8 Pray for the churches where former students are now based, that God would cause them to grow through his word (Ephesians 4:7–16). - The pastoral ministries of Gregory (Jemelle), James (Louvain-la-Neuve), Martin (Liège), and Robbie (Louvain-la-Neuve).

9 Pray for the second of the IBB's five guiding principles: the centrality of the gospel.
- Clément, a fourth-year student on a church placement in Lille.

10 Pray for the lectures on Doctrine Overview, the Gospel of John, and the chapel service, which will include a sermon followed by a fellowship meal.
- Damien, a third-year student.

11 Pray for good conversations at the IBB stand at the AEPEB Convention today, for the several students serving at this event, and for IBB's Director, James Hely Hutchinson, who will be giving the main Bible talks. - David, a first-year student.

12 Pray for the lecture on Children's Ministry and for the students serving in this area of ministry in their churches this year.
- Deborah, a first-year student.

13 Pray for students who are parents or are expecting to become parents, that they may reflect God's love and patience and that He would sustain them in maintaining a healthy work-life balance.
- Dominique, a first-year student.

14 Pray for the new Saturday-stream lecture series: a Bible Study workshop in the morning and Revelation in the afternoon.
- Domitille, a second-year student.

15 Pray that former students serving in pastoral ministry will be renewed in their perseverance, patience, and love for the flock they serve. - The pastoral ministries of Keith, Mardochée, Marc-Etienne, and Nathan, and those of Maxime, Valentin A., and Will.

16 Pray for the third of the IBB's five guiding principles: rigour in the study of Scripture.
- Ed and Florian, first-year students.

17 Pray for the courses on Exegetical Method and for the Academic and Pastoral Board, which meets every two weeks.
- James S. and Jotham, second-year students.

18 Pray for the biblical language lectures, particularly for humility and rigour in learning and using these tools. Pray for a fruitful meeting in London today for the Director, concerning support for the Institute. - James K. and Jérémie, first-year students.

19 Pray for the Evangelism lecture and the occasional practical training sessions for first-cycle students, that many may benefit from them. - The ministries of Jonathan F. and Xuan Son Le Nguyen at the IBB.

20 Pray for the lecture on the Gospel of Luke and the one-off practical training sessions for second-cycle students. Pray also for former students serving in Africa.
- Joshua, a first-year student.

21 Pray for the continuation of the Saturday-stream lecture series: the Bible Study workshop in the morning and the Book of Revelation in the afternoon.
- Josué, a third-year student.

22 Pray that the lecturers and current and former students preaching today will be strengthened and encouraged.- The pastoral ministries of Thomas (Herstal), Timothée L. (Huy), Timothée W. (Leuze), Tom (Brussels-Etterbeek), and Yves (Charleroi).

23 Pray for the fourth guiding principle of the IBB: the character of the student.
- Lida, a fourth-year student undertaking an church placement in Brussels.

24 Pray for David Vaughn's sermon at chapel and for the lecture on Biblical Godliness. May God use this course to shape the students' character for his glory.
-Lucas, a second-year student.

25 Pray for the Beginner Greek lecture and the Preaching Workshop for second-cycle students.
-Pierre and Toni, fourth-year students undertaking churhc placements in Brussels and Grasse/Draguignan, respectively.

26 Pray for the lectures on Homiletics, Hermeneutics, and the Latter Prophets.
- The ministries of Séphora (TPSG website), Solveig, and Anne-Laure (Paris).

27 Pray that the digital resources available on the IBB's websites and YouTube channel will be helpful to many ("Wednesday Mini-Devotionals," the Bibliodok book review website, articles, and other resources.) - Tanguy and Grace, second-year students.

28 Pray for the continuation and conclusion of the Saturday-stream lecture series: A Bible Study workshop in the morning and the Book of Revelation in the afternoon.
- Timothée, a third-year student and student body president.

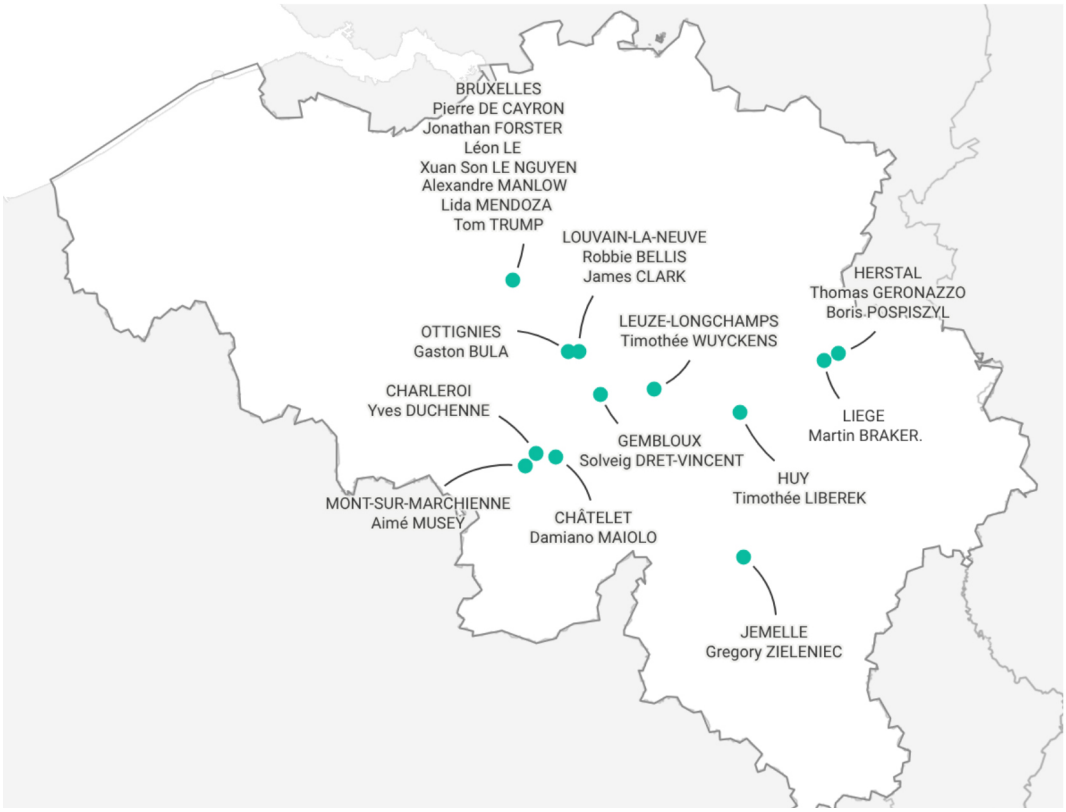

29 Pray that former students and lecturer-pastors will be good role models for their churches, demonstrating humility. - The pastoral ministries of Alexandre K. and Mesmin (Togo), Valentin M. (Morschwiller-le-Bas), and Zacharie (Montauban).

30 Pray for the fifth guiding principle of the IBB: practical ministry in the field.
- Valentin, a first-year student.

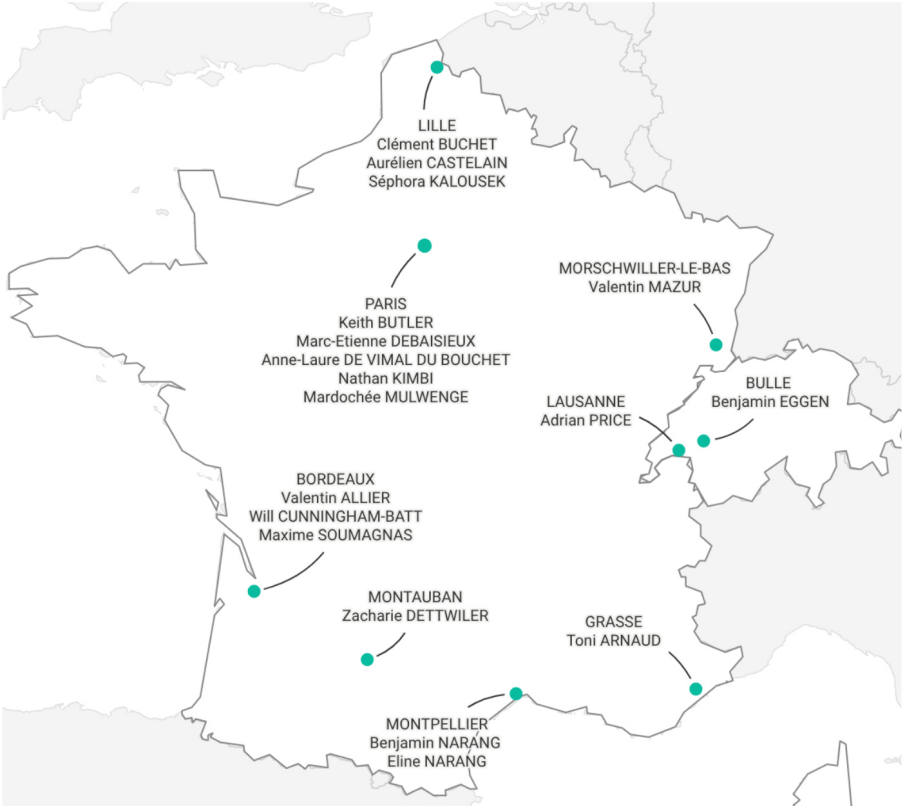

WHERE ARE THEY NOW ?

INSTITUT BIBLIQUE DE BRUXELLES

BELGIUM

FRANCE

TOGO

